

Regarding LPFM as it relates to K-LOVE.

I am not in favor of the LPFM if it will eliminate access to Stations such as K-love. K-Love plays an extremely important role as a radio station that plays christian music where I can trust the content not to promote sex, profanity and violence. The FCC does not seem interested in protecting the general public from indecent language anymore.